MILWAUKEE METRO LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY FALL RALLY

The Lutheran Women's Missionary Society invites all women to a rally Saturday, October 21, hosted at Jordan Lutheran in West Allis. There is more information at the Welcome Center.

REFORMATION 500

HERE I STAND!

Dr. Martin Luther stood before the Charles V, the Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire, the most powerful man in Europe. He was facing condemnation and death. "Will you recant?" Luther was asked.

What courage it took to stand before this powerful man and respond, "I cannot. I will not recant. Here I stand. I can do no other. God help me."

While we will not likely stand before such a powerful human judge, every one of us will have to stand before a much more powerful divine Judge. What can give anyone the strength to stand before that place of judgment?

Luther discovered in his study of Scriptures the strength to stand before God as Judge. Because of that he could stand before Charles V as his human judge and declare, "Here I stand!"

During our celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation, we want to reclaim that confidence that Luther had... a confidence based on grace alone, faith alone, Scripture alone and Christ alone.

October 22

Faith Alone

John 5:24-29; Heb 11:1,2, 8-12

So many of the truths God teaches us and the promises he makes cannot be comprehended by the human mind or seen with our physical eyes. To accept them, believe them, build our lives and the hope for eternity around them, we must rely on God's gift of faith.

October 29

Scripture Alone

2 Kings 22:1-11; 23:1-3

Luther lived in a time when the grip of human tradition on the church (along with all its errors) was so tight it seemed nothing could turn the tide. Risking his life in the process, Luther held tight to the Word and its truth, and the power of the Word literally changed the world.

November 5

Christ Alone

Acts 4:1-12

We are naturally prone to put our hope and faith in the things and the people of this world. Yet there is only One who can help and save us from any and every calamity of body and soul.

MISSION PARTNER NEWS

ANOTHER MISSION PARTNER: COSTA MAYA MINISTRIES

A Wisconsin couple has a summer home on the Yucatan Peninsula, about four hours south of Cancun. About ten years ago, they started sharing their faith others and a mission began. Two years ago, the mission called Pastor Martin Valleskey, formerly of St. Peters in Milwaukee, to serve as their missionary. God has blessed their efforts and they hope to add a second staff person. While this mission is part of our Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod, it is supported solely by mission partner congregations and individuals. Because of its proximity to Cancun and the inexpensive flights to that resort area, it is relatively easy to participate in short-term mission trips to Costa Maya. It is our prayer that St. Paul's can develop a mission partner relationship with this new mission, providing financial and manpower support. We will welcome any gift you would like to give for this effort. Mark it Mexican Mission Partner. More information will be coming soon!

HELPING A SISTER CITY IN PUERTO RICO

Barranquitas, Puerto Rico, is the hometown of St. Paul's member Diane Ludwig. This town is in the interior of the island and was recently ravaged by Hurricane Maria. Diane's friends and family have already responded with a desire to help. St. Paul's has agreed to gather funds that will be used for hurricane relief. Diane will use her friendship with the mayor of Barranquitas to direct our gifts to those in need. Who knows what might develop from this show of Christian love? Costa Maya Ministries began as the result of the devastation of Hurricane Dean, another category 5 storm, that struck the Yucatan Peninsula 10 years ago. May God produce another ministry opportunity in the midst of tragedy? Pray that it might be so. If you would like to give a gift for this effort, mark it clearly "Puerto Rico."

MALAWI MISSION PARTNER COMMUNIQUE

The latest edition of the newsletter from our Malawi mission partner is available at the Welcome Center. Thank you to those of you who give so generously to support the work of this mission.

AMERICAN BASED VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR A WORLD MISSION OPPORTUNITY

Joy-Filled Children of the World (JCW) is an exciting and blooming ministry to Asian children.

JCW is looking for American volunteers to teach conversational English from their own homes to small groups of children. They have almost 50 small groups desiring to start the weekend of October 20 but desperately need more American volunteers.

The children have had at least 3 years of academic English, and this program engages them in conversation through Bible stories to help them develop their English speaking skills. Volunteers teach small classes (2-4 students, ages 9-16) which are hosted by a "local assistant teacher." American volunteers teach via the internet one hour per week, with a total of 24 lessons between October and June. You don't have to be a certified teacher or a master of English... just friendly, patient and mentoring.

More information is available at the Welcome Center or you may also contact Beth Radloff-Gove at bethgove@gmail.com or (512) 762-3762.
