

REFORMATION 500

SCRIPTURE ALONE

October 28, 29, and November 1, 2017

"The Church must not lord it over Scripture, nor must I or anybody else, according to our own ideas. The devil with that attitude! We should rather allow Scripture to rule and master us." – Martin Luther

C I meditate on it all day long.

M Your commands make me wiser than my enemies,

C for they are ever with me.

M I have more insight than all my teachers,

C for I meditate on your statutes.

M How sweet are your words to my taste,

C sweeter than honey to my mouth! (Psalm 119:97-99,103)

 You must work all good with - in us.

M All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness,
 C so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work (2 Timothy 3:16,17).

M Yet so often we have despised God’s Word and failed to gladly hear and learn it. For this and all our sins, we bow before God and humbly ask his forgiveness.
 C Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior, Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

M God gave his Word so “that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name” (John 20:31). The Scriptures testify about Jesus, who lived a perfect life for you, died on the cross to pay for all your sins, and rose again to assure you of your salvation. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son † and of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

M Let us pray.

C Almighty God, in your mercy you chose to speak to us in your Holy Word, the Bible. You revealed your righteous law, which convicts us of our sinfulness. You proclaimed your grace in Christ Jesus, who earned for us the forgiveness of sins. Lead us to always teach the truth of your Word, to treasure the gospel, and to let the love of Christ compel us to live according to your will. Amen.

THE WORD

FIRST LESSON

1 Corinthians 2:1-14, Bible page 1143

Paul says that the message of wisdom, which the apostles spoke, was given to them by God the Holy Spirit.

VERSE OF THE DAY

M Alleluia. Alleluia. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path. Alleluia (Psalms 119:105).

Jesus says that being his disciple means following his teachings.

After the announcement of the Gospel, the congregation sings:

Glo-ry be to you, O Lord! Glo-ry be to you, O Lord!

After the Gospel, the congregation sings:

Praise be to you, O Christ! Praise be to you, O Christ!

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and became fully human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRESIDING MINISTER (Sunday) Pastor David Kuehl

ORGANIST Nicole Greanya

Our vision is that by every possible means we bring every person in our area of influence closer to Christ through regular worship, small groups, and serving together.

OUR COMMUNION PRACTICE

The Lord's Supper is a fellowship meal. In this meal Jesus expresses his fellowship with us by giving us his body and blood for the forgiveness of sins. In this meal we also express our fellowship with each other, that is, that we are united in a common confession of faith.

We at St. Paul's want everyone to enjoy this fellowship meal. However, we cannot ask someone to express agreement with us until we give that person an opportunity to discover what we teach. That is why we schedule frequent membership classes to provide an overview of our teachings. Please ask one of our pastors for the date when the next class begins.

If you are a member of St. Paul's or a member of a WELS or ELS congregation, we invite you to express our common confession by communing with us. You may wish to use the "Personal Preparation for Holy Communion" on page 156 of Christian Worship to examine yourself. Please register your intent to commune as a member or guest by filling out the Connection Card and placing it in the offering plate.

The light-colored cups in the center of the individual cup tray contain non-alcoholic wine. Gluten-free wafers are located in the trays on the Communion rail. If you need a gluten-free wafer, please inform an usher as you approach the rail. The first pews in the left center section are reserved for those who have difficulty approaching the Communion rail, and we kindly ask those who desire to be communed privately to use these pews.

REFORMATION 500

LUTHERAN LIVING

Martin Luther was often criticized for not teaching good works. Others felt that if people were told that salvation was free, no one would have the incentive to do good works. People would simply take advantage of grace.

Luther strongly encouraged Christian living. However, he put it in the proper perspective. Good works follow faith. He repeatedly said that we are justified by faith alone, but faith is never alone. It is a living, busy, active thing, seeking to serve God and neighbor.

Unlike the church of his day, Luther stressed that living our faith is not something done only by those involved with church work. You do not have to take a special vow of poverty, chastity, and obedience to truly live your faith. God places opportunities before us in our daily lives to live as his people, serving others in our various “callings” or “vocations”: in families and among friends; at school and in the workplace; in the marketplace and in our communities.

True “Lutheran living” recognizes that we produce fruits of faith in a variety of simple ways as we go about our daily living. And through us God cares for others and for his creation. “God’s people please God even in the least and most trifling matters. For He will be working all things through you; He will milk the cow through you and perform the most servile duties through you, and all the greatest and least duties alike will be pleasing to Him.” (Lectures on Genesis, Luther’s Works 6:10).

MISSION PARTNER NEWS

COSTA MAYA MINISTRIES

A Wisconsin couple has a summer home on the Yucatan Peninsula, about four hours south of Cancun. About ten years ago, they started sharing their faith others and a mission began. Two years ago, the mission called Pastor Martin Valleskey, formerly of St. Peters in Milwaukee, to serve as their missionary. God has blessed their efforts and they hope to add a second staff person. While this mission is part of our Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod, it is supported solely by mission partner congregations and individuals. Because of its proximity to Cancun and the inexpensive flights to that resort area, it is relatively easy to participate in short-term mission trips to Costa Maya. It is our prayer that St. Paul's can develop a mission partner relationship with this new mission, providing financial and manpower support. We will welcome any gift you would like to give for this effort. Mark it "Mexican Mission Partner". More information will be coming soon!

HELPING A SISTER CITY IN PUERTO RICO

Barranquitas, Puerto Rico, is a city in the center of the island that was ravaged by Hurricane Maria. This is the hometown of St. Paul's member Diane Ludwig. She still has many relatives living in this community. Pastor Pete has formed a team of Diane and Jay and Joan Oswald to coordinate our efforts to show Christian love to this area in need. In the shortterm we will be sending supplies that are needed. Diane's family owns a home in Barranquitas that we can use to house volunteers who go to help clean up and rebuild. That is our long-term prayer... that some of us can give of our time and travel to the island. Who knows how our Christian love might make a difference, not only in helping rebuild, but also to draw someone to see the love of Jesus in our love for them. That is our ultimate long-term prayer... to make a difference for eternity. If you would like to support this effort, mark your gift "Puerto Rico."

MISSION OPPORTUNITY - TEACH ENGLISH THROUGH BIBLE STORIES

Joy-Filled Children of the World (JCW) is an exciting and blooming ministry to Asian children.

JCW is looking for American volunteers to teach conversational English from their own homes to small groups of children. Over 50 small groups have started but they desperately need more American volunteers.

The children have had at least 3 years of academic English, and this program engages them in conversation through Bible stories to help them develop their English speaking skills. Volunteers teach small classes (2-4 students, ages 9-16) which are hosted by a "local assistant teacher." American volunteers teach via the internet one hour per week, with a total of 24 lessons between October and June. You don't have to be a certified teacher or a master of English... just friendly, patient and mentoring.

More information is available at the Welcome Center or you may also contact Beth Radloff-Gove at bethgove@gmail.com or (512) 762-3762.

Life application materials for us in Connector Groups, home devotions, and other small groups.

1. Share highs and lows from the past week and pray for each other.

2. Has this series on the Reformation reminded you of any ways that the struggles of Luther's day still exist in our world today?

3. Read 2 Kings 22:1-11 and 23:1-3
 - Do you personally know any young people in your life that might shoulder the responsibility of being a Godly leader as Josiah did?

 - Were you shocked by the fact that the religious leaders "lost" the Bible (v. 8)? Why or why not?

4. Do you know anyone who thinks the Bible is irrelevant? What could you share with that person to show them how relevant the Bible is in your life?

5. Over the years of his professional schooling, Luther discovered that it wasn't Scripture alone that determined what the church taught and believed. Human wisdom became the final judge. If we're being honest with ourselves, how often do we lean into human wisdom rather than scripture in our daily decision making?

6. What changes about the Christian faith when Scripture alone is lost?

7. Pastor Bonack wrapped up his message with the reminder that the need for reformation never ends. What can you do this week to reclaim and proclaim God's word in your life this week?
