ROE V. WADE 45TH ANNIVERSARY

January 22 marks the anniversary of legalized abortion by Roe v. Wade. This is a time to reflect on the more than 60 million lives whose time of grace was cut short by abortion. You or someone you know may be experiencing post-abortion stress, guilt, sadness, anger, or heartache. There is hope and healing in Jesus. WELS Lutherans for Life offers free, confidential, and non-judgmental help for women and men dealing with crisis pregnancy and abortion-related trauma. Contact Pat at (414) 416-9648 or pat@pregnancy-counseling.com for more information.

TUG TALK — LOOK UP: DO SMART DEVICES CREATE DUMB PEOPLE?

We continue to find ways to make it easier for us to connect with one another, yet we seem to spend more time alone. Stopping the use of social media or smartphones is not the answer, but we must make sure we are awake, alive, and living life in the moment instead of living life through a screen. Evaluate how balanced our real and virtual worlds are at Teens Under God on Sunday, January 28, at 6:30 pm in the Trinity Café.

GroupWork

Bible Study Discussion Starters

1. Share highs and lows and begin your time together in prayer.

2. What do the concepts of revolution [our current series' theme] and community [this week's message theme] have in common?

3. Read Psalm 133 and 134 together.
 - What do these two psalms tell you about God's definition of community?

 - If you wrote a verse in the style of Psalm 133, what would your verse say to support what it's like when God's people live together in unity?

4. Read Hebrews 10:19-25.
 - How do these verses connect perseverance with community?

 - If we were living out the instruction given in 10:24-25, what would that look like in our day-to-day lives?

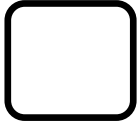

5. Read Mark 3:31-35 and Romans 12:9-16.
 - Who can we encourage?

 - When can we encourage?

 - How can we encourage?

6. How would a revolutionary display of encouragement change our world?

7. Who has God placed in your life that you can actively encourage and spur on this week? Pray together for these people and that God would provide clear opportunities for us all to encourage each other daily!
