OUR COMMUNION PRACTICE

The Lord's Supper is a fellowship meal. In this meal Jesus expresses his fellowship with us by giving us his body and blood for the forgiveness of sins. In this meal we also express our fellowship with each other, that is, that we are united in a common confession of faith.

We at St. Paul's want everyone to enjoy this fellowship meal. However, we cannot ask someone to express agreement with us until we give that person an opportunity to discover what we teach. That is why we schedule frequent membership classes, entitled Following the Promise, to provide an overview of our teachings. Contact Pastor Nate Strobel at nstrobel@stpaulmuskego.org to find the session that works best for your schedule.

If you are a member of St. Paul's or a member of a WELS or ELS congregation, we invite you to express our common confession by communing with us. You may wish to use the "Personal Preparation for Holy Communion" on page 156 of Christian Worship to examine yourself. Please register your intent to commune as a member or guest by filling out the Connection Card and placing it in the offering plate.

The light colored cups in the center of the individual cup tray contain non-alcoholic wine. Gluten-free wafers are located in the trays on the Communion rail. If you need a gluten-free wafer, please inform an usher as you approach the rail. The first pew in the left center section is reserved for those who have difficulty approaching the Communion rail, and we kindly ask those who desire to be communed privately to use these pews.

THANK YOU FROM FORMER FIRST GRADE TEACHER MS. LINDA MARTENS

Dear Members of St. Paul's Church and School,

Five years ago I accepted a divine call to serve as your first grade teacher. You welcomed me warmly, treated me generously, and responded to my ministry graciously. Now you treated me lovingly at my sudden retirement. I thank you for the generous monetary gift. You are a group of Christians that uses gifts and services to the Lord of the church. My prayers will always include your work as you continue to share the gospel message.

May Jesus keep you,
Linda Martens

NOVEMBER GRACE ROOM SERIES

When was the last time you read Deuteronomy? And why would you? Doesn't Deuteronomy contain a lot of outdated rules? Isn't Deuteronomy mostly law and little gospel? You'll be surprised. Join others in learning from Professor Mark Braun (Wisconsin Lutheran College) who wrote the People's Bible volume on Deuteronomy. We will discuss which Old Testament laws still apply to New Testament Christians. We will see that there is a lot of grace in Deuteronomy. Most of all, Deuteronomy pointed people ahead to Christ. Deuteronomy: Encouragements and Lessons for New Testament Christians, Grace Room, November 4, 11, 18, and 25, 9:15-10:15 am.

ST. PAUL'S NEWS

KEEP YOUR FOCUS ON YOUR FAMILY CHURCH

- Family Crests: We want to thank all the families who shared their Family Crests with us! When they are returned to you, we encourage you to post them in a prominent place in your home to help you keep Jesus at the center of your Family Church.
- RAWKs Fund Seed Packets: We have already heard back from one individual who used his Random Acts of Worship Kindness Fund Seed Packet to purchase a keyboard for a nursing home where a family member lives. He added to the fund, he shared the idea with family members and family members of other residents and they contributed, too. Within a day or two the keyboard was there to bless their worship space. In this way, the generous, loving aroma of Christ is spread to the residents of this home, the people who work there, and others. This is the power of the RAWKs Funds!
- Share the Family Church Message: If this series has been a blessing to you and your family, please share it with friends. All the material (testimonials, messages, devotions, theme song) is available at www.stpaulmuskego.org/family-church. Worship helps for other congregations to use the series can also be found there.

WHAT TIME IS IT? OUR NEXT MESSAGE SERIES

When was the last time you checked the time? If you are doing something you enjoy, time can fly by and you don't even realize what time it is.

One of the challenges of our lives is that God gives us so much to enjoy in this life, time flies by and we don't realize what time it is.

During the last services of the Christian church year, we want to pause and check the time. What time is it?

- A Time for Reformation
- A Time for Action
- A Time to Shine
- A Time of Thanksgiving
- A Time for Submission

BACKPACKS FOR HOMELESS VETERANS – TWO WAYS TO HELP

As a thanksgiving response for all God's goodness to his people here at St. Paul's, Amanda Frelka-Bruch is organizing a drive for the VA Medical Center which serves homeless veterans. Our goal is to provide veterans who fought for our freedom a small gift of gratitude. We hope to assemble 72 backpacks filled with life essentials to gift to homeless veterans. You can help out in two ways: 1) Donate new or gently used backpacks. Drop them off in the church library or the school/church office by Wednesday, November 7. 2) Volunteer for a couple hours to pack the backpacks before sending them to the VA for distribution. If you would like more information or to volunteer, please contact Amanda Frelka-Bruch at Fbruchaj@gmail.com. Perhaps this is the RAWKs Fund (Random Acts of Worship Kindness) opportunity your family or small group is looking for.

GRIEF SHARE – SURVIVING THE HOLIDAYS

When you are grieving a loved one's death, the holiday season can be especially painful. St. Paul's will be hosting a Surviving the Holidays seminar in the Grace Room on November 13, 5:45-8:00 pm, to help prepare for the holidays. Please contact Sharon Klopf at (262) 706-3595 or sklopf@stpaulmuskego.org to register. For more information you may go to www.griefshare/holidays.

MOMMY & ME SATURDAY SESSION

Moms and children (birth to age five) are invited to attend a special session of Mommy & Me on Saturday, November 10, 9:30-11:00 am, in the Faith Room. Bible Study Discussion Starters

Life application materials for us in Connector Groups, home devotions, and other small groups.

1. Share Family Church high's and low's from the past week - where have you seen God's amazing power in your personal family, life, and ministry?
2. Watch Dee Hahm's testimony together. (You can find it at www.stpaulmuskego.org/family-church.) How did her testimony impact you?
3. C. S. Lewis, in his book "A Grief Observed," wrote: "No one ever told me that grief felt so like fear. I am not afraid, but the sensation is like being afraid. The same fluttering in the stomach, the same restlessness, the yawning. I keep on swallowing. At other times it feels like being mildly drunk, or concussed. There is a sort of invisible blanket between the world and me. I find it hard to take in what anyone says. Or perhaps, hard to want to take it in. It is so uninteresting. Yet I want the others to be about me. I dread the moments when the house is empty. If only they would talk to one another and not to me." If you have experienced the loss of a loved one, what in C.S. Lewis' description of grief was similar to yours?
4. Isaiah 65:17-25 gives us a tiny glimpse of heaven. What words or phrases in these verses hold the most meaning to you?
5. Read 2 Corinthians 1:3-7. Share a story of how God used you to comfort someone else in their time of loss or grief.
6. How can the promise of a heavenly reunion impact your own family church this week?
