BELLS AND REMEMBRANCE

OPENING HYMN 441

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

M The grace of our Lord † Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C And also with you.

M “Surely the day is coming,” the Lord says. “It will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be like stubble.” Those are frightening words for the evildoer.

C Those are frightening words for us. For the Scripture says that there is no one who does good—not even one.

M “But for you who revere my name” the Lord continues, “the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.”

C How blessed we are to know and believe in Christ Jesus, God’s Son, who has paid the price for all our evil deeds!

M Brothers and sisters, as we approach our Savior and our Judge in worship, let’s openly and honestly confess our sins, so that the sun of righteousness may rise on us with healing in its wings.

All Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior, Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

M God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son † and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

M In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord.

HYMN 376, vv. 1-2

Jesus, Your Blood and Righteousness

Jesus, your blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
Mid flaming worlds, in these arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.

Bold shall I stand in that great day
Who can a word against me say?
Fully through you absolved I am
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M Let us pray.
Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior and our Judge, speak to us through your Word and strengthen us through your sacraments, so that we may look forward to the day of your second coming with confidence and eager expectation.

C Keep us steadfast in true and living faith, that we may stand before you on that day holy and blameless.

M We pray in your name. For you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and became fully human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OUR COMMUNION PRACTICE

The Lord's Supper is a fellowship meal. In this meal Jesus expresses his fellowship with us by giving us his body and blood for the forgiveness of sins. In this meal we also express our fellowship with each other, that is, that we are united in a common confession of faith.

We at St. Paul's want everyone to enjoy this fellowship meal. However, we cannot ask someone to express agreement with us until we give that person an opportunity to discover what we teach. That is why we schedule frequent membership classes to provide an overview of our teachings.

Please ask one of our pastors about the current class offerings. If you are a member of St. Paul's or a member of a WELS or ELS congregation, we invite you to express our common confession by communing with us.

WHAT TIME IS IT? A TIME TO ACT

Please pick up your personalized Plan for Giving envelope in the church lobby today. Return your Plan for Giving for 2019 by December 2. In this way, you will be helping us reach more people for Christ.

We are in spiritual warfare. In addition to supporting our school system and missions, what would we like to do in the next fiscal year?

- Serve the wounded. Provide continued support to Pastor Bonack to get a Master's Degree in Mental Health Counseling so we can provide professional counseling on our campus.
- Protect our youth. Add staff to serve our youth and our community to replace the time that Pastor Bonack is spending on course work.
- Open a new front. Develop plans to start a second worship site somewhere in the greater Milwaukee area to reach more people for Christ.
- Support our troops. Increase the compensation package for our workers to demonstrate our belief that "the worker is worthy of his hire" (1 Timothy 5:18 KJV).

Thank you for returning your Plan for Giving as soon as possible.

GroupWork

Bible Study Discussion Starters

Life application materials for us in Connector Groups, home devotions, and other small groups.

1. In honor of our veterans, share stories of those in your family or circle of friends who are veterans or are currently serving in the military. Begin the study with a prayer for those currently serving.

2. Read Malachi 4:1. The battlefield scenes of World War I depict utter devastation. Why might that imagery be helpful to remember as we consider what is most important in life? See also 2 Peter 3:10-12.

3. “But for you who revere my name...” (Malachi 4:2). Malachi is filled with God’s accusations against his people because they had not revered or honored God’s name. How might God level these same charges against us 21st century church members?
  - a. You despise my Name (1:6-8).
  - b. You have broken faith (2:11-16).
  - c. You have said harsh things against me (3:13-15).

4. “But for you who revere my name...” (Malachi 4:2). Read Psalm 145, a song of praise to God’s name. What phrases lead you to revere or stand in awe of God’s saving name?

5. Read Malachi 4:2. Have you ever seen a calf leap after being released from the stall? What Biblical descriptions about the end of the world and heaven make you already want to leap for joy?

6. Pastor closed with a challenge to test God. In what way are we to test God? See Proverbs 3:9-10 and Malachi 3:10.
