EMPTY
EMPTY HANDS
April 30, 2017

When it seems as though we never have enough, the empty tomb is a reminder of how rich we really are. Look at all the spiritual blessings that you have right now in Christ Jesus. Such contemplation produces contentment in the midst of whatever life situation we find ourselves in.

Lesson

Acts 24:10-21, Bible page 1120

Paul defends his ministry and message before Governor Felix.

Gospel

Luke 24:13-35, Bible page 1060

Jesus appears to two of his disciples on Easter Sunday as they sadly make their way home to Emmaus. As Jesus speaks with them and opens up their understanding of the Scripture, they receive new hope and clearer insight into who Jesus is and what his death and resurrection mean for their lives.
