

Important Directions for Parents:

Below are the lesson notes and activities used by the teachers during the “Small Group” session of Kids Club. In your home, during this Covid-19 down time, you could adapt these activities to provide your children with additional, interactive things to do to reinforce the “Large Group” lesson materials provided on the webpage. The formatting and page breaks for these pages did not translate so well from their original electronic file, but you should be able to see how it works.

LESSON: PAUL ENCOURAGES OTHERS DURING A SHIPWRECK

Leader Guide for Grades 4K-2nd

Acts 27

04/26/2020

Teachers Dig In

Dig In to the Bible

- Read: Acts 27
- In This Passage: Paul is being transported as a prisoner on a ship when a violent storm threatens to sink the ship. But God encourages Paul, letting him know that no one on the ship will die when the ship wrecks. Paul passes on that encouragement, and everyone gets safely to shore.
- Bible Point: God is encouraging...
- Application: ...so we encourage others.
- Summary Verse: “A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power” (Ephesians 6:10).

Dig Deeper

- You’ll Be Teaching: God is encouraging. A lot of kids wrestle with self-doubt and insecurity. (Am I smart enough? Am I pretty enough? Am I strong enough? Do people like me?) As you talk about God’s encouragement, find ways to encourage kids. You’ll set an example and give them words they need to hear.
- Think About: Think of three encouraging things people have said to you. Thank God for sending those encouraging words through other people.

Dig In to Prayer

- Ask God to give you the right words so you can encourage kids with just what they need to hear.

Quick Tip

- As a Sunday school teacher, you might feel taken for granted by your kids. Maybe you don't get a lot of encouragement for what you do. So let us encourage you: You're doing God's work. You're making a lasting difference. You're touching kids' lives in ways you'll never know...but God knows. Thank you for all you do! Keep up the good work; you're amazing!

This Lesson at a Glance

LOW-ENERGY GAME

Kids play a version of Hot & Cold.

OBJECT LESSON

Kids spin plates on marbles.

Supplies

- disposable round plastic plates with a 1-inch edge (2 per child)
- marbles (15-20 per child)

Guiding Encouragement

Play a Version of Hot & Cold

Say: We're learning that God is encouraging. An awesome thing God's encouragement can do is guide us to what God knows is best for us. Let's play a game where some helpful encouragement will guide you!

- For each round of this game, one person (the Seeker) will step into the hall. Everyone else will hide an object in the room. (The Seeker won't know what the object is.)
- The Seeker will return, and the other kids will guide him or her to find the object by clapping.
- When the Seeker is far away from the object, kids will clap very quietly or not at all.
- As the Seeker gets closer to the object, kids will clap louder and louder and can even cheer when the Seeker is about to find the object.
- Play as many rounds as time allows with a new Seeker for each round.

Talk About It

Ask: • How did encouragement guide you in the game?

• Tell about another time encouragement from God or another person helped you know what to do. Share an example of your own first, such as God guiding and encouraging you about taking a job, what college to go to, or how to make new friends.

Say: God's encouragement to Paul helped guide him in how to handle the storm. He knew everyone needed food and that no one should get off the ship before it crashed. When you're in a tough situation, listen for God's encouragement! Share it with others, too. God is encouraging, so we're encouraging.

OBJECT LESSON

[10 min]

Spin!

Supplies

- disposable round plastic plates with a 1-inch edge (2 per child)
- marbles (15-20 per child)

Tips

- We used a solid-colored plate on the bottom and a clear plate on top. It was fun to see the marbles move in a circle under the top plate. But two colored plates will work, too! Just make sure both plates are the same size.

- We found that our table wasn't a completely even surface. We had the best results when doing this experiment on the floor.

Spin Plates Without Marbles

Give each child two plates, and have kids place one plate on top of the other, nested.

Say: I have a challenge for you! Can you make the top plate spin inside the bottom plate? Only the top plate should rotate Invite kids to try to spin the top plate. It will be difficult to spin only the top one.

Add Marbles

Say: I think our top plates need a lift. Let's add some marbles and see what happens.

- Have kids each put five marbles on the bottom plate and then set the other plate on top again.
- Show kids how to place an index finger on the edge of the top plate and move the plate in a circle until the plate spins on its own.

Say: Now they're moving! Let's add more marbles and see how long our top plates can spin.

- Have kids add more marbles and try spinning their plates again. Invite kids to experiment with more or fewer marbles and see how long they can make the top plates spin on their own.

Talk About It

Ask: • How did the number of marbles help your plate to spin?

Say: Like encouraging words lift our spirits, the marbles lifted the plates and helped them keep going. The more marbles, the better the spin. And the more encouragement we give, the more people are motivated to keep going, even when it's hard. In our Bible story, Paul encouraged the people on the ship more than once. His words kept them from stopping or giving up.

Ask: • How can you be a “marble” and help someone keep going this week?

Say: God is encouraging. He encourages us through other people, and we can be those encouragers and keep our friends going!

God Encourages Us in the Storm

Supplies

- taped boat outlines from Core Bible Discovery

Pretend to Be in a Storm

Say: Today we learned that God is encouraging, so we encourage others, too. We heard how some men were on a boat in a storm and really needed encouragement!

Lead kids to pretend to get into a boat together. Then lead them in pretending they're in a storm by swaying back and forth and patting their knees to make rain sounds and saying “Crack!” to make thunder sounds.

Have kids freeze in place. Say: God encouraged the men by giving them Paul, who let them know that God would take care of them. Sometimes we need encouragement from God, too. Sometimes we need encouragement because we're trying something new. Other times we need encouragement because we're scared or worried. God's always with us when our lives feels like a storm. And God reminds us we can be brave.

Share about a hard time you or a loved one are going through that you want God's encouragement for.

Ask: • What's something you want to ask God to encourage you about? You could ask God for encouragement for a worry you have or for God to encourage your family to get along.

Lead kids in a brief prayer for the things they shared. Ask God for encouragement, and ask him to help you and the kids encourage others when they're feeling sad or worried.

Pretend to Be in Calm Waters

Say: When we talk to God about our worries and fears, he'll encourage us. He can help us be calm even in a scary time. We might say he can “calm the waters.”

Lead kids in pretending to be in calm waters. Have them sway back and forth gently.

Say: God encourages us, and we can encourage others, too. Let's thank God that he hears us and he'll encourage us when we ask for it.

Lead kids in a brief prayer thanking God that he's encouraging.

Say: I encourage you to remember God's with you this week and to encourage others, too. I hope you'll come back next week with stories about how you were encouraged and how you encouraged others!
