DIG IN @ HOME

Week of June 21, 2020

THE LESSON

God appears to Moses in a burning bush. God tells Moses to lead the Israelites out of Egypt, where they're slaves. Moses doesn't want to and has a lot of excuses. But God assures him, "I Am Who I Am."

God doesn't change; he's the same God today! Read Exodus 3:1-4:17.

God Is I Am

Exodus 3:1-4:17

THE POINT

God doesn't change, so we trust him when we're unsure.

Through the Week

Our lesson this week reminds us that God does not change. Humans are constantly changing, growing, getting older, etc. We are never the same and change every day. While we would have to describe ourselves with, "I was...", God is the only being who can always say, "I AM!" God does not change. Play this fun game to explore changing.

- Choose one person to leave the room.
- Everyone else will change one thing about his or her appearance—for example, removing glasses or jewelry, rolling up shirt sleeves, or changing a hairdo.
- The person who left the room will return and try to guess what changed about each person.
- Play several rounds, sending a new family member out of the room each time.
- After the game, talk about what it was like trying to keep up with all the changes. What made it easy or hard?
- Pray together and thank God that he never changes. You never need to play guessing games about who God is!

Dear Father in Heaven, the Great I AM:

We praise your holy name and thank you for being changeless. In a world that changes so much, and experiences such pain and trouble, we are thankful that you are the same. We can count on you, trust your promises, and turn to you in times of need. Dear Father, please heal the changes currently going on in the world (pandemic and prejudice). Turn these troubling times into blessings for all your dear children of every race, culture, and status. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
