Sunday	Course Title	Description	Presenter
September 11, 2016	Prophets Overview & The Book of Jonah	Did you realize that you are God's prophet or prophetess by virtue of your baptism? Join us as we take a quick 4-week look at Old Testament prophets — their life situations and their God-given job descriptions. We will then write our own job description as God's spokesmen & women. The next 4 weeks we will then turn our attention to the "reluctant prophet Jonah" to help us overcome our reluctance in our personal prophetic assignments.	Dan Kolosovsky is a former WELS pastor and current St. Paul's member. He is a frequent, Grace Room Bible class presenter.

This letter breathes with a message of living hope, aimed at those who feel more and more like strangers in a world that's not their home. Peter reassures these exiles by reminding them of their royal IDENTITY, their sacred CALLING, and its related CROSS. He teaches them to see the extraordinary in the ordinary and comforts them as they live this refugee life. Through God's strong Word he helps them stand firm in the true grace of God.	Rev. Paul Wendland is President of Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary, Mequon, WI.

February 12, 2017	Gifted to Serve	Our individual and collective vision at St Paul's is "By every possible means we bring every person in our area of influence closer to Christ". Our congregation gives us a wide variety of opportunities to help us accomplish this. However, we at times may feel that we are not qualified or able to carry out this mission of the church. Join us as we study how God the Holy Spirit has equipped us with many spiritual gifts so that each of us can successfully "preach the Gospel" in a seemingly endless variety of God-pleasing ways and means!	Dan Kolosovsky is a former WELS pastor and current St. Paul's member. He is a frequent, Grace Room Bible class presenter.
